5. PRESENTATION: Yolo County RCD’s Putah-Cache Watershed Restoration Program

General Manager Sicke introduced Heather Nichols with the Yolo County RCD (RCD) and appreciated the working relationship with the RCD while the District assisted with vegetation management in Cache Creek as directed by RCD’s staff. Nichols presented on the RCD’s Putah-Cache Watershed Restoration Program, where she educated us on how Arundo is detrimental to our watersheds because Arundo 1) is fire prone, 2) promotes erosion and flooding, 3) uses three to five times more water than native vegetation, and 4) degrades quality of riparian and aquatic wildlife habitat. In 2020, RCD received grant funding to remove Arundo within the Putah and Cache Creek watersheds and to-date, has worked with 75% of landowners through 235 individual agreements to treat about 64 of the 256 total acres over 64.5 of the 91.6 total river miles in Yolo and Solano Counties. Nichols reviewed photographic examples of activities involved in the removal of Arundo such as mowing, cutting and chipping, and cut stump treatment, along with restoration activities like post treatment native planting. Nichols reviewed an upcoming grant opportunity with the Bureau of Reclamation's WaterSMART Environmental Water Resources Projects Grant Program. The RCD is interested in partnering with the District to secure additional funding for Arundo removal in the Putah-Cache Watershed.

Chair Mayer asked how many additional acres will be included in a grant proposal to the Bureau and Nichols reported that 25 acres would be proposed with a focused effort on restoration of the area. Mayer also asked whether the RCD was treating areas that there were in partnership with Yocha Dehe and Nichols reported that they were working closely with Yocha Dehe.

Ed Ketchum asked whether the US Army Corps of Engineers is completing their required vegetation removal in Putah Creek, and Nichols was unaware of the federal program requirements.

Lee Smith inquired whether the RCD is focusing treatment efforts where there are multiple benefits because in addition to the habitat benefits landowners may have interest in cost sharing with the RCD and partners to complete other vegetation removal or restoration work while they are on site completing Arundo removal. Additionally, Smith requested that the Arundo be removed or burned after moved out of the waterway because it can play a role in flooding farmers' fields and county roads by clogging sloughs and canals. Nichols acknowledged the multi-benefit collaboration comment as a good idea that may be limited by available staffing and funding resources and took note of the need to get the Arundo out of the way prior to the rainy season.

Director Vink asked if there are other invasive plants that can be included, and Nichols noted that tamarisk could be incorporated into future funding requests.

Director Kimball asked if the proposal would include monitoring what's already been done, and Nichols suggested that would be ideal, but they were still determining whether that would be an eligible grant expense.

Chair Mayer thanked Nichols for her time in presenting to the Board and commented on looking forward to additional information on potential grant proposal collaboration.

6. PRESENTATION: Potential for Restoration of Off-Channel Mining Pits

General Manager Sicke introduced Jim Barrett, a neighbor to the District's Moore Siphon property, and a conservationist that serves on the Cache Creek Conservancy Board. Barrett provided a helpful history of the riparian forest that existed on Cache Creek prior to mining activities. Yolo County's Off-Channel Mining Plan (OCMP) presents a comprehensive and integrated planning framework for regulating and protecting the Cache Creek area, and currently allows for agricultural production, wetland restoration, and groundwater recharge and storage as restoration activities. Barrett has an interest in investigating the benefit of restoring the off-channel mining pits to wetlands and revising the OCMP to allow for that as a higher priority reclamation activity, if agricultural production is no longer viable.

Director Kimball noted that restoration efforts may be a viable option since there has not been one case of successful reclamation to agricultural production to-date. Chair Mayer thanked Barrett for his time in presenting to the Board and commented on looking forward to additional updates from Barrett on his collaboration with Yolo County to update the 2026 OCMP progresses.

7. PRESENTATION: YSGA Update

General Manager Sicke and Assistant General Manager Cadaret presented updates on the YSGA that included an explanation on the new Governor's EO that removed the requirement for well permitting verification from the GSA and coordination with the County on a potential temporary urgency ordinance. Additionally, there was an update provided on the Hungry Hollow Groundwater Working Group and plans for the October 2, 2024 meeting.

8. DIRECTOR'S REPORT

Directors Mayer and Vink have proactively conducted outreach related to the Healthy Rivers and Landscapes initiative. Director Mayer will be attending NCWA and DWR meetings in October. Directors Tucker and Barth attended the Farmers' Council meeting at the end of September and participated in meetings to discuss the Geysers water supply agreement. Director Barth met with Supervisor Barajas and Director Vink met with Supervisor Villegas to discuss the Healthy Rivers and Landscapes initiative. Director Tucker hosted a farm tour for the incoming County Supervisor Sheila Allen. Kimball also mentioned that two more meetings are planned for making progress on the Strategic Plan.

The District coordinated with the County of Yolo on the 2023 update of the Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan (Plan). Cities, special districts, authorities, and tribal governments participated in developing the Plan which must be reviewed, updated, and approved by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) every five years. The Plan identifies natural and man-made hazards that threaten people and property within Yolo County, with the goal of developing long-term strategies for protecting people and property from the identified hazards. The 2023 Yolo County Multi-Jurisdictional Hazard Mitigation Plan was recently approved by FEMA and requires participating agencies to adopt the plan through formal resolution.

BACKGROUND:

The California Department of Fish and Wildlife (CDFW) offers a routine maintenance agreement (RMA) as a type of Lake and Streambed Alteration (LSA) agreement. An LSA agreement is a permit required for certain projects that may affect a stream, river, or lake. An LSA agreement and RMA are needed for work in the County’s sloughs and the District has some RMAs in place for slough maintenance related to Madison Esparto Regional County Service Area (MERCESA) and for laterals off of the Winters Canal.

There is a significant gap in LMA and RMA coverage for sloughs that are on private property in the lower watershed. A few landowners have requested that the District assist them in obtaining permits from CDFW and serve the lead agency role under CEQA.

District staff would like to solicit feedback from the Board since there is no formal policy for the District to facilitate the application process for landowners to obtain a CDFW permit.
